	To illustrate the trend of people taking shootings not necessarily lightly but in a manner skewed with what should be. Rapper shoots himself in the cheek, then takes pictures of himself. It appears the pictures hit social media. The mindset amongst youths that gun violence is cool has got to stop.

Cops: Kids in car at time of father's shooting

9:46 a.m. Monday, Aug. 1, 2016

A Cobb County man was fatally shot in his SUV with his two children inside, and the vehicle crashed into a wooded area along Six Flags Parkway, police said.

Cobb police Sgt. Dana Pierce identified the man as Larry Grigsby, 42, of Austell.

Police were dispatched to the 7200 block of Six Flags Parkway after a woman called 911 about 2:30 a.m. Sunday to report a wreck near a Marathon gas station and the West Place and West Parc [Park?] Apartment Homes.

"When they arrived near the entrance to the West Parc complex, they

	discovered that the driver of a Chevrolet Trailblazer had likely driven into some trees after being shot," Pierce said. Grigsby was alive when police arrived, but he died minutes later. http://www.ajc.com/news/news/crime-law/cops-kids-in-car-at-time-of-fathers-shooting/nr7yw/ HCN comment: part of the crime is the life-lasting trauma put on the kids
